Audubon Nature Institute Hosts Career Fair

(New Orleans, La.) – Audubon is hosting a career fair for all its facilities in the Jerome S. Glazer Audubon Tea Room Monday, December 16, 2019 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Audubon is seeking candidates for full-time, part-time, and volunteer positions.

Join Audubon Nature Institute and become a part of an organization that is focused on celebrating the wonders of nature by creating a family of museums and parks dedicated to the natural environment.

“Audubon hires an average of 200 summer jobs, along with positions in animal care, guest services, special events, concessions, and education, plus internships and more,” said Senior Director of Human Resources Ellen Causey. “Audubon is currently seeking to fill 250 positions by March for its spring and summer season.”

To achieve its goals and objectives, Audubon employs numerous individuals in many different areas of each facility with vast multitudes of skills and experiences. Each job is important to the overall success of the operation of Audubon Nature Institute.

At the career fair, there will be representation from all departments that have job openings at the time of the fair. View current openings here: <https://audubonnatureinstitute.org/careers>
